AN AWFUL MONSTROSITY

In the Shape of a Wild Man-Snake in Preston County.

A DESCRIPTION OF THE THING

It Has no Sense and Eats Liquid Food Only--The Offspring of Intelligent Parents---Placed in the County Infirmary.

KINGWOOD, W. VA., April 17 .- Isaac P. Martin, of Pleasant township, ight to the County Infirmary here to-day, a frightful monstrosity. This being, which can hardly be called a human, is an object of cariosity and intermbles a serpent in appear ance and in its writhing movements

Your correspondent visited the In-Martin learned of its peculiarities. The age of this snake-like man is twentythree years, and since its birth it has never uttered a word. The parents lived near Cranesville, this county, were in-telligent and well to do, and until lately, when the mother died, kept this son at home entirely secluded, and but few people ever knew of the existence of ch an unnatural offspring within the

The head of the thing looks like that of a huge snake; the eyes are small and set far back in the head, which bears no set far back in the head, which bears no resemblance to that of aman. At times this peculiar being becomes almost uncontrollable and will dart from place to place with lightning-like rapidity. At night it is necessary to allow a light to shine into the room or it will not lie down to aleep. This man-snake does not seem to possess a single idea and its mouth is so shaped that it will not admit of any.

CHARLESTON, W. VA., April 17 .- The Wheeling & Connellsville Railroad Company, organized for constructing a railroad from Wheeling by the most practicable route to a point where the State line is crossed by Wheeling creek in Marshall county, was chartered today. The capital stock is $1,000,000, divided into shares of $100 each, of which William A. Lynch, of Canton, Ohio, holds 100 and R. H. Cochran, P. J. Hearne, W. A. Lisett, J. N. Vauce, George Wise, A. J. Clarke, C. A. Robinson, John G. Hoffman, Sr., Henry K. List, Joseph Speidel, A. Raymann, J. B. Taney, E. W. Oglebay, John Frew and W. P. Hubbard, all of Wheeling, hold one each.

TORONTO, OHIO, April, 17.—Thomas Jones, of Wheeling, died here this morning from the effects of the grip. He left Wheeling about ten days ago, for Pitts-burgh on a visit to his parents, and stopped off here en route, to visit his fia severe case of typhoid fever; this caused his death. AN INTERESTING PAPER

The regular meeting of the Wheeling Teachers' Association was held in the Clay Grammar School room yesterday

Two songs were well sung by a choir from the Grammar school. Devotional exercises were led by F. H. Grego. The singing was under the direction of Miss Lucy Robinson. Hon. J. M. Birch, former Superintendent of the Wheeling schools and ex U. S. Consul to Nagasaki, was then introduced, and after a few introductory remarks avgressing his please. troductory remarks expressing his pleasure of being before the teachers of Wheeling again after an absence of near-
